

Ohio Energy Project

1984 – present

- Energy Bike program is developed
- Ohio NEED Project renamed Ohio Energy Project

- Westerville School District programs

- AEGIS – National Ohio NEED Project Energy Efficiency Programs with EPA/OEEF, ARC
- Energy Bike program is updated and improved

- Ohio NEED Project is established
- Program includes workshops, professional development and student leadership training
- Shauni Nix becomes Executive Director

- HB 264
- Worthington Schools
- Columbus Public Schools

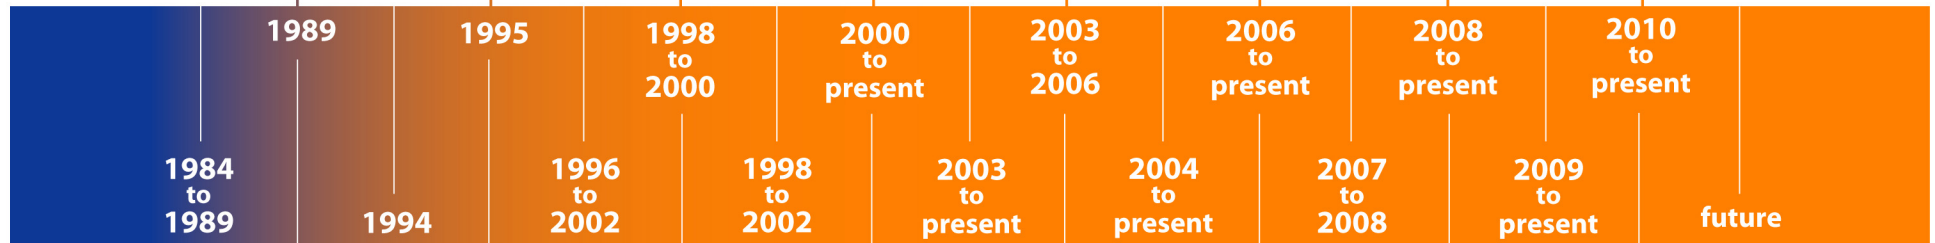

- Debby Yerkes appointed Executive Director

- Richard Smith appointed Executive Director

- gridSMART program begins

- NEED conducted programs in Ohio

- Regional Office established in Cincinnati
- Debby Yerkes is appointed Regional Director

- Rebuild America – Energy Smart Schools

- AEGIS – Ohio

- Energy Sources Tour programs begin

- Energy Efficiency Program established

- Energy Efficiency Programs with AEP Ohio and DP&L

- OEP's energetic mission continues...

- Energy Bike programs
- Power Partners include AEP/CPS, Ohio EPA, FE
- Current Connections includes CGE/CPS

25 years of successfully promoting an energy-educated society and facilitating leadership, through effective partnerships with schools, businesses, government and communities.